LA CREOLE SCORES AT LONG ODDS.

The sensation at Lakeside yesterday was the defeat of Redskin in the mile handicap, and the victory of La Creole at 40 to 1, with King Bors second at 30 to 1. Redskin was giving away a lot of weight and finished last, not being persevered with the last furlong. La Creole made all the running and won by two lengths, while King Bors was a bad last for the first three-quarters. Little Hothersall shook him up with all the vigor he had, in the stretch and managed to land second.

The track was slow, the weather warm and the attendance large. Two favorites, Tom Anderson and Irene Woods, won. Cunarder was a well backed second choice.

The opening race was won handily by Cunarder from Mr. Dunlap. In the two-year-old race, Tom Anderson was an odds on favorite, and a strong play backed Cogent down from 10 to 6 to 1. Anderson won very easily, but Cogent expended all he had to beat Golightly, a head for the place, with Brown Eyes a head off, fourth.

In the six and a half furlongs for 3-year-olds, Irene Woods had all she could do to beat Elusive, the pair finishing ten lengths ahead of Peep O'Day II, who just scraped in in front of Ida Wagner.

Old Glenoid was never better in his life than at present, and with Hothersall up he won the five furlongs, beating Bob Lee, Simmons and May Fern.

Running Bird's win in the last race was such an extraordinary reversal of form that the judges requested his owner, H. Sullivan, to depart to other fields. Nannie D was a fair second.

Cella & Sippy have purchased the Merry Glen stable from Mr. J. E. Kittson, which consists of Merry Monarch, a, by Hindoo—Bramballetta, and five two-year-olds, among them Siegfried by Wagner—Godiva, Aceta by St. Blaise—Carmen, a colt by Muscovy—Interest, full brother to Cossack, and another by Cheviot. Jockey J. Murphy goes with the stable, and Cella & Sippy will in future race under the name of Merry Glen Stable.

Numerous alterations and improvements have been made at Forsyth. Both the grand stand and betting ring have been enlarged, the last named 185 feet. Bleachers have been placed on the roof of the betting shed, and a new, wide walk arranged over the roof to the stand. The restaurant and bars have been moved back and refitted.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Baker & Gentry have secured second call on the services of Joe Scherrer.

Nearly all the Brookdale lot, including One I Love and Bastion, are sick with catarrhal influenza.

McNaughton & Muir are doing less than well with their small stable, and for economy sake have released Jockey Snedecker.

J. Gardner, who has been with Charley Hughes this season, has signed to ride for Mr. H. E. Leigh the remainder of the season.

R. P. Waters, who bred Cleophas, owns her half brother by Trafalgar—Linnie, recently fouled at Bardstown, Ky., and a superb individual.

Moose Taylor, who four years ago, could ride at 90 pounds, now tips the beam at 138 pounds, and is acting as cashier in C. H. Kingsley's box at San Francisco.

It is not generally known that Wm. McGuigan purchased Prince Lief when the latter was a yearling, paying for him $850. For some reason or other he did not comply with the conditions of the sale, and the colt was resold to Byron McClelland.

Meadowthorpe was not sold with the rest of the Pepper string in New York. The colt belongs to Mrs. Pepper and has been placed in M. F. Dwyer's stable at Gravesend.

That gay deceiver, Santa Anita, known to us as Rey el Santa Anita, ran in the English Manchester Handicap, 1 1/4 miles, last Friday, and was fifth in 3:13 2-5. He was at a rogue's price, 50 to 1. The favorite, The Docker won. So far Mr. Croker's English foray has been a joke.

Only Enoch Wishard and Pierre Lorillard cut any figure in English racing. When Wishard won last week Reiff, who rode him, was held as a worse joke in a riding way than Simms. Still he won. That ought to make Wishard, under an English boy, a crack. He isn't that here.

From California comes the news that Crescendo wrenched his ankle a few days ago. But he is to come east at once and race, with about twelve more of Naglee Burk's Pueblo Stable lot, at St. Louis. Crescendo is to be pointed for the National Derby, in which he meets Ben Brush and Prince Lief. In commenting on Crescendo's ill fortune, the abnormally unintelligent critic of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat refers to him as a "great grey race horse." The books abound in Crescendo. He should overhaul them and switch to chestnut.

The Thoroughbred Yearling Sale.

Don't overlook the sale of the Runnymede (Clay & Woodford), Melbourne (W. S. Barnes), Larchmont (S. C. Lyne) and Woodford Bros' yearlings, to take place at Tattersalls, 16th and Dearborn sts., Monday evening, by electric light, beginning at 8 o'clock. Forty-eight choice yearlings by Hindoo. Sir Dixon, Jim Gore, Leonatus, Deceiver, Fonso, Fordham, King Galop, Onoko and Patron, all out of producing dams. The yearlings can be seen at Tattersalls, 16th and Dearborn sts., Saturday, Sunday, and Monday.
